VOLUME CVL--NO. 249. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 20, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A rich man died the other day. He died in the very midsummer of life, and he left his family $1,000,000. The doctor's certificate showed that death resulted from typhoid fever. The doctor himself said to a friend: "That man was a suicide. He had a splendid constitution. I could have pulled him through if his stomach had been sound. But he ruined his stomach by hasty meals, snatched in intervals of business and by neglect of symptoms which have been warning him a year past, that his stomach was failing in its duties."

The symptoms of a disordered stomach are, among others, variable appetite, sour risings, heartburn, undue fullness after eating, dull headache, dingy complexion, discolored eye, fluctuations in physical strength, nervousness, sleeplessness, despondency. No person will have all these symptoms at once.

The restoration of the stomach to sound health, begins with the first dose of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The cure progresses until the functions of the stomach are in healthy operation. Then the nerves are quiet and strong, the appetite healthful, the sleep restful, the eye bright, the complexion clear.

"Please accept my thanks for the benefit which my child received from your medicine," writes Mrs. W. A. Morgan, of Silica, Mo. "He had been troubled for nearly a year with liver complaint, indigestion and constipation. I gave him your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' and they did him great good. I gave him the 'Discovery' about eight months, and several vials of the 'Pellets.' He seems to be perfectly well now."

If you want a cure accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equaled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure foul, torpid and deranged Stomachs, Livers and Bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

...URALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Irritation

of the throat, sore and swollen tonsils, loss of voice, and other throat troubles should never be neglected. These ailments quickly work down to the lungs, and often end in consumption or pneumonia.

HAMLINS

used as a gargle, and externally on the throat, is a marvelous remedy for these painful and dangerous disorders, and effects relief and cure after everything else has failed.

Says Henry Wade, of Harlin, Mo.: "I am under obligations to you for the great good which Hamlins Wizard Oil did my wife. She suffered from Throat Trouble for a year, and though she doctored and doctored, nothing did her any good, until she tried Hamlins Wizard Oil." Price 50c and $1.00.

Southern Growth.

The report of the Southern Railway Company is an interesting document. Tape readers, of course, will fasten eagerly upon the statement that its net income and surplus over charges each increased about a million dollars. Truly this is an encouraging statement, but interest in it is narrow compared with facts affecting the territory which the railway serves. Thus we learn that "along the lines of the Southern Railway Company during the year ended June 30, 1905, there were completed and put in operation 46 textile mills, 84 furniture factories, 38 iron industries, 6 tanneries, 77 stone quarries and coal mines, 13 cottonseed oil plants, 8 fertilizer works, and more than 500 smaller industries. Over 250 previously existing plants were enlarged during the year and 54 new industries were under construction at the close of the year."

All this along the lines of only 7,000 miles of railway! What must have been the growth along the aggregated 200,000 miles and more in the United States? And what do these dull figures mean in men and money? Every mill required capital and operatives.

Captains of industry translate such facts into terms of immigration and investment which spell wealth not for the railway primarily, but for the community. Nor is this the top of the boom in the opinion of the men on the spot. The report continues: "Underlying conditions are favorable to further increase in industrial development along and adjacent to the company's lines." This is what the cotton crop is doing for the south and its railways in a yellow fever year. The permanence of growth of this sort is its most important characteristic. All wealth comes from the soil, but it does not come equally in all years. In business, too, there are fluctuations, but with a difference. When a mill is built, when an immigrant settles, it is something like insurance of permanent addition to the resources of the district, as well as the railway. Thereafter their interests are indissoluble. The mill may make more or less money; but, like the railway, it cannot be removed. Nor do settlers upon the soil move easily. Their roots are set deeper than the forest king's. They can only prosper by finding a market for their products, and for that they are dependent upon railways. But they must get a dollar before the railways can get a share of it.

It is a maxim of railway administration that no railway can prosper in the adversity of its customers, and that their prosperity must precede the railways. No money is made upon passenger and freight which are not carried, and no railway traffic moves unless there is profit in it for the shippers as well as for the carrier. Yet there are those in influential places who seek to antagonize these hand-in-hand interests. It is portentous to think of damage to railway inventors through damage to railways. It is calamitous to think of the results to communities if railway enterprise is paralyzed by confiscatory or benumbing legislation. The Southern Railways and its tributary region are doing so well together that it is prudence to leave well alone, lest it be worsened by departures from tried and proved policies.—[New York Times, Oct. 16.

Only a Dog on Board.

A sailing vessel in midocean deserted by her crew, but with sails set and proceeding with fair speed toward the shore of North America, was sighted by the steamer Teutonic, which arrived at New York yesterday. The Teutonic's officers believe that the vessel is the bark Orion, whose crew, according to a wireless message received from midocean last Tuesday, were rescued from their ship by the steamer Etruria. The Orion was thought to be sinking when the Etruria, bound for Liverpool, took off the crew. The Tentonic passed the deserted ship when she was about 40 miles southwest of the point from which the wireless message was sent and about 500 miles east of the North American coast line. One living thing, a black dog, was seen on the lonely vessel by the Teutonic's passengers. The animal sat on its haunches in an elevated position, where it could survey the ocean on all sides. The bark's wheel was lashed and her course was steapily southwest. From the masthead a distress signal was flying.

Large Sun Spot.

Father Rodrigues, director of the astronomical observatory of the Vatican, in Rome, announces that he has discovered in the sun a spot of extraordinary dimensions, larger than that observed last February. The spot is composed of seven principal nuclei, and in length it is one-eight the diameter of the sun and a little less in width. The area covered by the spot is over 12,000,000,000 square miles. Within three days, Father Rodrigues says, the spot will reach the center of the sun, when the area as it will face the world will seem larger. The spot can now be seen with the naked eye.

A Daredevil Ride

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve." "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Thief in Church.

Rev. Thomas King, assistant pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, Brooklyn, had a fierce fight with a thief whom he caught robbing the poor box in the vestibule of the church, and were it not for the prompt arrival of Father Dubigg, pastor of the church, the younger priest might have been killed. As it was he was badly cut and bruised from his fight with the thief.

A young woman entering the church noticed the stranger loitering about the vestibule, and informed Father King. The latter hurried to the church, and secreting himself in one of the confessionals, watched the man. The thief had a long wire with a small hook on the end of it. This hook was covered with a sticky substance, and he was working this industriously up and down the slot in the poor box when he was pounced upon by Father King.

The thief put up a stubborn resistance, when Father Dubigg appeared and aided in throwing him to the floor, and keeping him there until the police arrived. The prisoner said his name was Vito Desalman. In his pockets was about $200 in small change.

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 461 King street.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCT. 20, 1905.

WHOLESALE expulsions at a New Brunswick, N. J., institute are expected as the result of hazing by the sophomores on Saturday. The freshmen are in the habit of taking walks on Saturday. On Saturday morning a crowd of sophomores procured a hayrack and team, and not far from Hightstown overtook a party of freshmen and captured ten of them in a secluded cornfield on the Dey road. They made their victims go through all kinds of "stunts." Some of them were forced to undress and were then painted with iodine. Others had a coat of glue put to their faces, in which were stuck pieces of cotton. Finally the boys were given old suits of pajamas and in this scanty attire were left behind, while the exultant sophomores drove away. The freshmen were obliged to seek the assistance of a farmer who drove them back to the institute. Expulsion is not a punishment sufficient for the crime of brutal hazing. The culprits should be turned over to the civil authorities and be made to suffer the severest penalty for assault.

MR. LANDIS, chairman of the House committee on printing, declares that in every department of the government, as well as in both houses of Congress, there is extravagance, reckless and shameful waste in the matter of public printing. The amount of material collected and the evidence already in the hands of the committee investigating the affairs of the government printing office, Mr. Landis says, are sufficient in volume to amaze any one conversant with the facts. He says it is simply amazing to what extent this enormous abuse of public money and misuse of government facilities has been allowed to go and he declares that when the condition of affairs is made public it can not help working a revolution in the methods and volume of public printing. Then the quicker publicity is given to this matter the better for the taxpayers. Mr. Roosevelt over a year ago saw that something was wrong in the government's big printery and at that time urged a retrenchment.

IN THE case of the Armenian Vartanian, who claims to be a naturalized American citizen and who is under sentence of death in Constantinople on the charge of murdering an Armenian merchant, the State Department is still using its efforts to procure his trial by the American consul in the extra-territorial court. There is little doubt in the minds of the U. S. representatives at Constantinople that Vartanian is guilty as charged. But under existing treaties the United States hold that an American citizen, whether naturalized or native born, who commits a crime in Turkey has a right to trial by the consular courts. Turkey denies this right in the case of former Turkish subjects who have been naturalized in this country and gone back to Turkey to live or visit.

IT IS said at the State Department that there is no immediate anticipation of the negotiation of a new commercial treaty with Germany. While details are being gathered by officials of the department which would be necessary and useful if such a treaty were under consideration no steps will be taken to actually begin the negotiation of such a convention until after Secretary Root has had an opportunity to consult with Senators as to the terms and the prospects of the ratification of such a treaty if prepared by the department. In the meantime Germany has notified this country of the expiration of the existing commercial arrangement between that country and the United States early next March.

THE largest election bet in New York of the season, at the longest odds, was made "downtown" yesterday, a business firm, wagering $9,000 to $900 on McClellan against the field. On the curb in the morning there was a $1,000 bet on McClellan against $200, another of $1,000 to $250 on McClellan, and the last better announced that he had $10,000 to place at the same odds on the Tammany nominee for Mayor. If betting is an indication of how the election is going the anti-Tammany people might just as well give up now.

TWO MINUTES after she received her decree of divorce and had paid the costs of the suit instituted a year ago, Anna Dorothy Heim, an artist's model, was married in Cincinnati yesterday to a St. Louis salesman. Three years ago she married a Parisian. She alleged, in her petition for divorce, that he refused to aid in making the family living, avowing that she ought to be proud of supporting an imported husband. A great many American husbands refuse to work and support their wives on as silly pretexts as this Parisian.

THE Nashville Chamber of Commerce yesterday adopted a resolution requesting Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, if possible, to admit free of duty the articles brought into this country by Miss Alice Roosevelt. Well, the laws of this country are so often set aside by those in authority that but few people would care a rap if these presents are admitted free, but still many will want to know what the Knoxville Chamber of Commerce has to do with such matters.

PRESIDENT MCCURDY, of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, declared during the meeting of the investigating committee, yesterday, that he has no intention of resigning. Why, of course not. Mr. McCurdy knows a good thing when he has it. Beside, what else could he do or how else could he so liberally provide for his sisters and his cousins and his aunts?

Two brokers engaged in a fist fight on the Wall street "curb" Wednesday, one claiming the other had libelled mining property in which he was interested, and a promoter tried to collect an alleged debt from a lawyer in his office at the point of a pistol. These are evidently hot times in Wall street.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.

According to Consul General Anderson, of Amoy, China, as set forth in a report to the Department of Commerce and Labor, his observation has been that the boycott of American goods in China has resulted in increased sales of American products. He speaks of the boycott as "evanescent." The Chinese are beginning to get an appetite for American flour, while there has been a surprisingly large sale of condensed milk. It is in the line of manufactured goods other than food products that he places most hope for foreign trade in China. That country is looking to new things—to modern science and its benefits; at least its friends hope it is looking to these, he says. "Machinery is the magician's wand with which it is to open many possibilities," he says, and adds that the cultivation of its possibilities devolve more upon foreigners interested in selling than upon the Chinese themselves.

Unless forced to do so by the clamor of public opinion, the War Department will take no action against any officer of the army as a result of the findings and testimony in the now famous Taggart divorce case. This positive statement was made this morning by Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, Chief of Staff of the army, who has ordered that all of the papers bearing on this case in the War Department, including the charges filed some time ago by General Miner, one of the corespondents in the case, against Captain Taggart, be filed without action. General Chaffee and the other authorities at the War Department believe that too much dirty linen of the army has already been hung in the view of the public and that the best interests of the army as well as of the public would be better subserved by allowing the entire matter to drop with the decision of the civil court granting Captain Taggart his divorce, Of course, if the hand of the War Department is forced by public opinion some action looking to the trial by court-martial of some of the officers involved in the case will of necessity have to be taken, But it is sincerely hoped at the department that such will not prove to be the case and that the matter will be allowed to drop. In view of the relationship existing between President Roosevelt and Lieutenant Fortescue, one of the corespondents in the case, fear exists at the War Department that the President himself will direct that Fortescue be brought to trial. Up to the present, however, the President has given no intimation that he proposes to take any notice of the affair

"The American Federation of Labor will never willingly acquiesce to the employment of Chinese labor in any spot in America controlled by the United States," said Samuel Gompers today. He was discussing the probable action of the annual convention of the federation next month at Pittsburg on this subject, and had special reference to the employment of coolie labor on the isthmus. "No sensible American statesman," he continued, "will for a minute be satisfied with the quibble that the canal zone, while under the jurisdiction of the government for the construction of the canal, is not American territory to which the exclusion law applies. American labor should never be asked to compete with Chinese, and organized labor will present a solid front against the inauguration of such competition by the government itself." In addition to declarations against the use of Chinese in Panama, the federation will likely adopt resolutions protesting against relaxation in the rigid inspection of all Chinese coming into the United States, boycott or no boycott. President Gompers will probably carry the convention with him on the Chinese labor proposition, but there is a feeling that the labor question on the Isthmus, except where it involves skilled craftsmanship, had better be ignored. Several ligh officers in organized labor have forseen the futility of expecting American union men to do all the work on the canal, and some have advised American laborers to stay away from the isthmus. If then the Federation declares against Oriental cheap labor, it is suggested that the organization will occupy an anomalous position.

Alvin Smith, of Ohio, U. S. Consul at Trinidad, W. I., has been removed from office because of his failure to render his accounts quarterly as required by law. Carelessness rather than criminality is assigned as the reason for Mr. Smith's failure to comply with the law

W. H. Michael, of Nebraska, chief clerk of the State Department, has been appointed Consul General to Calcutta, India, to succeed Stanley Stoner, of St. Louis, recently resigned. Chas. Denby, jr., formerly secretary of legation at Peking, China, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Michael as chief clerk of the department. The change will be affected about the middle of next month.

Lieut. Commander Newton A. McCully, U. S. N., who was sent from this country to observe the naval warfare on the Russian side during the recent Russo-Japanese war, has returned to this city and reported to the Navy Department this morning. Commander McCully was at Port Arthur during all of the long-continued seige of that place by the Japanese and witnessed the naval attacks on the port and its defence by the Russians. After it became apparent that Port Arthur was about to surrender Commander McCully left there one night in a Chinese junk. The boat was seen and fired upon by the Japanese scouts, but managed to escape under cover of the darkness. McCully then made his way to Vladivostok and after becoming convinced that there was to be no naval fighting in that vicinity he went up to Mukden and witnessed the battle there. He has brought back with him a mass of valuable information which he is preparing for submission to the Bureau of Naval Intelligence.

When the hearings in the private car line cases were resumed before the Interstate Commerce Commission today, Chairman Knapp announced that the taking of testimony in relation to the Atchison, Topeka and Santo Fe and the Southern Pacific will be postponed until November 1. H. M. Emerson, traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast Line, resumed the stand, and offered more testimony as to his company's contract with the Armour Line, cost of icing, etc. 'His company' he said, acknowledges no liability for losses sustained by shippers of perishable goods in refrigerator cars. The Armour Company, under the contract, is expected to assume such losses.

A cablegram was received by the Isthmian Canal Commission this morning from Governor General Magoon reporting that not a single case of yellow fever now exists on the canal zone.

Assistant Attorney General Robb has returned from Gosben, Indiana, where he has been enraged in investigating charges that Judge Baker, of the United States district court there had in 1902 collected campaign contributions from federal officeholders. Mr. Robb declines to discuss the result of his inquiries.

The final act in the acquirement by the Philippine government of the Friar lands, formerly owned by the Dominican Order, occurred today when $35,21,657 was paid to the Philippine Sugar Estate Development Company and the University of San Tomas, Manila. These concerns have given deeds to the Philippine government for the Dominican Friar lands aggregating 400,000 acres, which deeds have been pronounced entirely satisfactory by the War Department. Part of the payment, amounting to $300.000, was made today in Manila, and the balance, amounting to $3,221,657, was paid in New York by the International Banking Corporation to Francisco Gutierre, who represents both the Philippine Estate Development Company and the University of San Tomas.

An echo of the Greene and Gaynor case reached the Supreme Court of the United States today, when the government docketed its case against Wm. B Kirk, of Syracuse, who was one of the bondsmen of John F. Gayner. Kirk went Gayner's bond for $40,000 in Savannah and when Gaynor had skipped out to Canada the government sued in the Georgia court to recover the bond. It got judgment for $40,000. Then proceedings were begun in New York to make the judgment effective, and injunction proceedings against the government resulted. The injunction proceedings were sustained in the Federal Courts through the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, and now the government has appealed to the Supreme Court in an endeavor to make its case.

News of the Day.

A conductor was shot and killed at Houston, Tex., yesterday by a passenger whom he had ejected from a train.

Edward George Cunleffe the Adams Express Company clerk, who disappeared from Pittsburg with $101,000, was arrested in Bridgeport, Conn., yesterday and about $80,000 of the plunder was recovered.

It is expected that the naval review will take place on October 23 in Tokio bay. The ships will be arranged in seven columns, extending from Yokohama to Haneda, a distance of fully 10 miles, with the captured ships leading the line. The review will be on a war footing, and there will be no banquet after the review. The Emperor will review the fleet from the armored cruiser Asama.

W. B. Smith, former president of the Western National Bank, of Louisville, Ky., was indicted yesterday by the federal grand jury on ten counts, charging him with embezzlement, making false entries and the misappropriation of the funds of the bank. The total defalcation charged in the indictments is $198,013. Smith is said to be in Porto Rico and it is alleged a cablegram has been received from him saying he will return to Louisville on October 29.

Sam Hisle, colored, who was hanged yesterday in the jail yard at Winchester, Kentucky admitted on the scaffold that he was guilty of the crime charged against him—assaulting a woman. He urged the officers and the white people to help root out the colored dens of iniquity which he said had led to his ruin. On August 14 Hisle went to the house of a Mrs. Bond, but she escaped. He then went to the home of Mrs. Jasper Case, and, after assaulting her, fled. He was captured at Paris and when brought to Winchester had a narrow escape froma mob. It took the jury in his case just seven minutes to return a verdict of guilty, with the death penalty attached. Hisle was only 18 years old.

The American Minister, Lloyd C. Griscom, will present William J. Bryan to the Emperor of Japan tomorrow. Hunington Wilson, the secretary of the American Legation, gave a luncheon yesterday in honor of Mr. Bryan. Viscount Aoki, former minister of foreign affairs; Baron Kaneko, member of the House of Peers, and M. Sakatani, the vice minister of finance, were present. Mr. Griscom will give a dinner to Mr. Bryan today. Marquis Ito, president of the privy council, and Count Okuma, leader of the progressive party, are expected to be present.

Keeping the Ghost Down.

An extraordinary instance of rustic superstition has been brought to light in a Hungarian village. Owing to sinister rumors as to the cause of death, the authorities had the body of a peasant exhumed, and were horrified to find the hands and feet nailed down to the coffin, while a long nail had also been driven through the heart. An inquiry was at once held, says the London Globe, with the result that an old woman confessed that the act had been perpetrated under her directions. The man had died a sudden death, and there being a superstition in Hungary that persons dying under such circumstances haunt the house in which they die, the further superstition has grown up that post mortem reappearances can be prevented by nailing the body in its coffin. The old woman further admitted having done the same thing in all similar cases for many years.

One of the prettiest marriages ever witnessed in Warrenton took place on the night of Wednesday, October 18 in Emanuel Church, when Miss Helen Leckie Wilcox became the bride of Mr. Frank Read Hawkins, of Winona, Miss.

Two parochial missions of much interest and helpfulness, have recently been conducted at Olivette chapel and Sperryville, Rappahannock county, the Rev. W. N. Tillinghast, rector, by the Rev. Messrs. John J. Norwood and Robb White, respectively. The gift of a marble font for Emmanuel church, Sperryville, has been made by St. Paul's church, Alexandria.

A new national party, to be known as the Knights of Liberty, having for its platform the absolute abolition of civil service laws, was formally launched in Norfolk last night. Democrats and republicans opposed to civil service will unite in the organization, and the only requisite to membership in the new party is a pledge to vote only for those candidates for President and Congress who place themselves officially on record as being against civil service as now in operation.

RICHARDS'S TRIAL.

The trial at Floyd Courthouse of John Richards, the young University of Virginia law student, for the murder of Maurice Francis, his rival, who was killed in a Floyd county road while driving in a buggy to visit Miss Gracie Link, to whom he was engaged to be married, was resumed yesterday. The courtroom was crowded.

Some 35 out of the 100 witnesses for the Commonwealth have been examined. A chain of strong circumstantial evidence is being woven around the young prisoner. One witness has positively identified Richards as the man in disguise. He went after him to ascertain who he was, and says positively that it was Richards.

Another places the disguised man on the very spot where Maurice Francis was killed, and says that when he was approaching the man ran into the bushes. Other witnesses say they saw Richards near the spot, sitting on a log, and one saw him on the fence with a shotgun on his lap. Others testified that a disguised man was seen going toward the point where Francis was killed on the day of the shooting with a double-barreled gun. W. H. Ferris testified that he saw a man with a false mustache running through his field on the evening of the shootin, going in the direction of Richard's home.

James Colling said he found the bottle of oiled shot where Francis was killed. The bottle was produced. Several other witnesses were introduced to prove that Richards had a similar bottle and that he oiled his shot, giving as a reason that it "kept them from spreading."

Dr. Thomas, the physician who attended Maurice Francis; stated that death was due to a gunshot wound. The doctor was also examined by the defense as to the dying declaration of Francis, as was proved yesterday by other witnesses. He said that Francis stated to him several hours afterward that he did not see who shot him, it was so quick, like a flash of lightning to him. Francis afterward said before dying, and while in a semi-conscious condition, though periodically rational, that he thought Richards shot him, as he was jealous.

This testimony was weakened by the dying declaration and is the first material point scored by the defense.

No Designs on Philippines?

Declaring that Japan welcomes the presence of the United States in the Philippines, Mr. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, last night in Washington gave a statement replying to the inquiry. He says that Japan feels "great repose about the Philippines because they are occupied by the United States, with the firm hold of its authority over the archipelago, not to speak of the many object lessons being given there by the new owners introducing modern inprovements in various ways."

Regarding Japan's future Mr. Takahira said:

"I presume it would be better for you to wait a little while before you will be able to see what Japan will do actually. I firmly believe that there will be no departure made hereafter from the line of policy hitherto pursued by the Japanese Government. The open-door policy proposed by the United States and readily joined in by Japan in July, 1900, will be scrupulously observed throughout the future, and the legitimate rights and interests of all nations will be duly respected wherever our influence would extend."

Regarding Japan's ability to meet her indebtedness, Mr. Takahira said:

"No doubt, the burden is very heavy, but if we consider the fact that the extraordinary special tax alone was raised since the war to the amount of $75,000,000 a year without hampering the growth of commerce and industry. I feel sure that there is no cause for pessimism and, moreover, a satisfactory sign is the continued development of both internal and external trade, and when we also consider the great interest that can now be given to our commerce in China and Korea with perfect security as the result of the treaty of Portsmouth, as well as the Anglo-Japanese agreement, we can confidently look forward to our prosperity in the future."

Today's Telegraphic News

Terrific Storm.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct 20.—At one o'clock this morning a terrific rain and wind storm, accompanied by vicious bolts of lighting, broke over this city. Large plate glass fronts in several stores and salesrooms were blown in and in some instances merchandise was picked up by the wind and scattered over the streets. A cigar store at Main and South Division streets was badly wrecked. The wind blew in the front and carried cigars and tobacco packages several blocks away. The front of the Pierce automobile salesroom was crushed and the stock was deluged with water. Trees were blown down in the parks and streets, as were also telegraph and telephone wires. It is estimated the wind traveled at about sixty miles an hour. At nine o'clock its speed had not subsided. Harbor men believe part of the breakwater wall off the lake front has been washed away by the huge waves, which the wind dashes against the piles of stone. No tug or craft of any kind can reach the wall, even inside the harbor, by reason of the heavy sea, and conclusion can only be reached by the view from shore. Up to 10 o'clock there had been no news of disaster to craft on the lake at this port. No boats went out last night, owing to warnings of approaching bad weather.

Two barges, the Unadilla, and the Sweetheart, with their crews, are adrift in Lake Erie, three miles off this port. Tugs have gone to the rescue of the barges and the men on them. A terrific storm is visible from the harbor and the crews are in great danger of being lost. The barges were in tow of the steamer Prinkel, which arrived here at 11 o'clock, and reported their loss by the parting of the tow line.

One of the barges turned over on its side just before noon, and spilled its cargo into the lake. A tug reached both barges and they are now safely in port, with their crews. Two vessels are ashore at the head of Niagara river on the Canadian side.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 20.—The vessels at this harbor were notified yesterday afternoon of the approaching storm and all remained in port. The storm which struck Erie about 2 o'clock this morning was severe, but the life saving station reports that there were no disasters or calls for assistance. A number of boats passed here bound up the lake this morning.

Lorain, O., Oct. 20.—The little freighter Wisconsin and the wooden steamer Sarah E. Sheldon are ashore at this port, and because of the fury of the storm raging no effort has been made to get them off. The Sheldon, it is feared, will pound herself to pieces in the shallow water. Tugs went to her rescue, but could not get close enough to take off the crew of 20.

Second Trial.

Constantinople, Oct. 20.—A second trial of the members of the Armenian committee implicated in the recent murder of a rich Armenian merchant named Undjian, was held in the criminal court yesterday under instructions from the Porte, without warning being given to the American legation which had interested itself in the cases on the ground that two of the prisoners claimed to be American citizens. Ghirkis Vartanian, who claims to have become a naturalized citizen of the United States, was condemned to death, and Alfarian, his alleged accomplice, was sentenced to fifteen years at hard labor. Vartanian pleaded that he was ordered to commit the murder by the Armenian committee and had no recourse but to obey.

Royal Betrothal.

Madrid, Oct. 20.—The Princess Isabel, speaking on behalf of the parents of Prince Ferdinand, of Bavaria, today, made a formal request of the Queen for her consent to the betrothal of the Prince to the Infanta Maria Teresa, the youngest sister of King Alfonso. In order to gain consent to his marriage Prince Ferdinand has become a naturalized Spanish subject. King Alfonso has bestowed upon him the Order of the Knight of the Golden Fleese and the rank of a captain of cavalry. Tonight a banquet will be held at court to celebrate the betrothal. The wedding will take place in the spring.

More Trouble Expected.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—Advices from Baku state that the situation there is again becoming threatening and a recurrence of the troubles between Tartars and Armenians, which resulted in practically devastating the surrounding country and runing the oil industry, seems probable. All Russians residing in the city have been warned by Tartars that their wisest course is to abandon their homes. The Armenians are in a panic and are fleeing wildly from the town. The authorities declare that they will be able to protect life and property.

Fire on Steamer.

Manchester, Eng., Oct. 20.—Fire broke out today on the Spanish steamer Ramon de Larrinaga, which arrived recently bearing a large cargo of cotton from Galveston, Texas. A great deal of damage has been done to the cargo by fire and water, which has been thrown upon the flames. The Larrinaga is a vessel of 1,981 tons. The fire was caused by the explosion of an acetylene lamp. The flames were confined to one hold of the vessel. About 500 bales of cotton were damaged.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Wards Off Pneumonia.

All coughs, colds and pulmonary complaints that are curable are quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure. Cears the phlegm, draws out inflamation and heels and soothes the affected part strengthens the lungs, wards off pneumonia. Harmless and pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton, and Co. 401 King street.

DIED.

At his home, No. 204 north Patrick street, at 2:30 a. m., Friday, October 20, JOHN COLE, aged 68 years. The funeral will take place from his late home tomorrow (Saturday) evening at 2 o'clock and the services will be held at Sharon Chapel, Fairfax county, at 3 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

The President at His Mother's Home

Roswell, Ga., Oct. 20.—President Roosevelt visited the home of his mother this morning, and shook hands with many of the good folks who knew her when she was Miss Martha Bulloch, of Bulloch Hall. He made a pilgrimage to the old white-pillared house where her girlhood days were passed; stepped within the ancient Presbyterian church where she so often worshipped, and where her father, Major James Bulloch, dropped dead while teaching his Sunday school class; received the blessing there of the venerable pastor, and shook hands with many of the townspeople, and then paid his respects to Mrs. William E. Baker, who was one of the bridesmaids at the nuptial ceremonies which joined her to Theodore Roosevelt, and caused her to leave the south and take up her home in the heart of Yankee land. At the station the President was met by Senator Clay, of Georgia, and others.

President Roosevelt at an ovation given him among other things said: "Senator and you, my friends, who it is hard for me not to call my neighbors, for I feel as if you were, you can have no idea of how much it means to me to come back to Roswell, to the home of my mother and of my mother's people, and to see the spot which I already know so well, from what my mother and my aunt told me. It is exactly as if I were revisiting some old place of my childhood. It has meant much to me, introduced by Senator Clay. He has been altogether too kind in what he said about me. Now I am going to say nothing whatever but the bare facts about Senator Clay and those facts amount to this: That if the average man I had to deal with in public life possessed Senator Clay's firm devotion to what he does right, my task would be so easy that it would not be worth mentioning. I have gone to Senator Clay for advice and counsel and help, ever since I have been in Washington, just as I went to Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, while he was in the Senate, with the certainly that all I had to do was to convince him that what I wanted done was right—that I could always convince him, but if I did convince him that was the end of it—he went that way."

In conclusion the President said: Men and women, dont you think that I have the ancestral right to claim a proud kinship with those who showed their devotion to duty as they saw the duty, whether they wore the gray or the blue? All Americans who are worthy of the name feel an equal pride in the valor of those who fought on one side or the other, provided only what each did with all his strength and soul, and mind.

After the speech making came a drive to the church and to Mrs. Baker's home. The President was about half an hour late in leaving.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 20.—Although the President left Roswell half an hour late, his special reached Atlanta on time. Governor Terrell, Mayor Woodward, and a large delegation was at the station to meet the party. Mrs. Roosevelt, who left for Washington at noon, was taken in charge by Mrs. Clark Howell, who escorted her to the Governor's mansion, where she remained until it was time for her to return to the station. At the Governor's mansion, Mrs. Roosevelt held a reception of considerable size, many of the ladies of the city calling to pay their respects. The President and the remainder of the party were driven to the Fair Grounds, where the President reviewed the military before making his address.

The throngs that banked the streets of Atlanta from the station to the fair grounds were the largest and among the most enthusiastic that he has met on his present tour. After a review of the troops the President was introduced to the crown that encompassed by Senator Clay, Mayor Woodward and Governor Terrell. The President introduced his speech by paying a few hearty compliments to Senator Clay. After the President concluded his remarks he was driven to the Piedmont Club, where luncheon was served. The afternoon will be devoted to more carriage driving and a reception. The President will leave for Jacksonville at 7 o'clock.

Bishop's Nephew and Golf Girls in Scandal.

New York, Oct. 20.—Alleging that Malcolm Littlejohn, nephew of Bishop Littlejohn, and another man, whose name he withholds, in company with two well-known Flushing, L. I., society girls, spent the night in the club house of the Flushing Country Club, Foster Maynard and John Hartly, both of Flushing, were arraigned in court yesterday, charged with attempted blackmail. Maynard was in charge of the club's golf links. According to his story, he saw Littlejohn, his companion and the two girls enter the building. They remained there the night, he says. The names of the girls he promises to make public today, and Flushing expects a scandal. He says the two girls are high in society, that one had made her debut shortly before the incident, and her sister had married an English lord. Both, he says, are members of the most exclusive society circles. Maynard and Hartley, it is alleged, asked Littlejohn for $300 for their information, but, instead, were arrested on the blackmail charge.

Buried in Westminister Abbey.

London, Oct. 20.—With impressive ceremonies and amid scenes that will long be remembered by those who witnessed them, the ashes of the late Sir Henry Irving were buried today in Westminister Abbey. The services were conducted by Canon Duckworth, assisted by the Very Reverend Joseph A. Robinson, Dean of Westminister; Dr. Weldon and Archbishop Wilberforce.

The Putiloff Iron Works.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 20.—It is reported that the Krupps of Gremany, the great manufacturers of heavy gun and armor plate are negotiating to acquire the Putiloff Iron Works in this city. If they are successful in this, Germans will be brought here to replace the present workmen and 14,000 Russian workmen may lose their positions.

Nine pieces of jewelry formerly owned by Mrs. Cassie Chadwick were sold at auction in Cleveland yesterday. The total amount bid was $2,217, considerably less than the appraised value.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal.' E. S. Leadbeater and Sons, druggist guarantee them at 50c.

Thirteen Years Hoodoo.

Morristown, N. J., Oct 20.—Although Thomas Buckley objected to a sentence of thirteen years for highway robbery and jail breaking and pleaded with the court not to send him down for the hoodoo term but to make it fourteen years, Judge Mills was obdurate and would not change the sentence.

"May I have the indulgence of the court in making a simple request?" asked the prisoner, after sentence was pronounced.

"Certainly," was the reply.

"May it please the court, I would call your attention to the fact that thirteen is the hoodoo term. It gives me a feeling of vague uneasiness, close akin to terror. If you could make the sentence fourteen years I would not be under the sign of the cross, or, rather, the double cross."

"Remove the prisoner," sternly interrupted the judge, "the sentence stands."

Tough Luck for Guest

Atlantic City, Oct. 20.—Misdirected funds sent by cable to Hugo Barth, a Bavarian, who was known as a "Count," at the Hotel Rudolf during the summer, failed to reach him and resulted in his arrest to answer the charge of attempting to beat the hotel out of his bill. The cash was found yesterday in a local bank, where it had been several days before his arrest. Mayor Stoy has taken up the case, and as it is shown that the man was no "beat," but that the cash, which he maintained was coming, was waiting his demand at the bank, he will likely be released with apologies. Barth was advised of the discovery and is expected here from the county jail to settle the bill, amounting to several hundred dollars. Count Hugo Barth, it is said, is related to the royal families of Germany and Bavaria, and is son and heir of a multi-millionaire manufacturer.

Severe Storm.

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 20.—Fifty thousand dollars damage has been caused by last night's storm to docks and boats. Houses far inland were laid low by waves forty feet high. Three houses at Squattertown were swept away and part of the families are missing. Lighthouse Keeper Hanson, of Menominee, barely saved his family.

Threats of Spanish Anarchists.

Barcelona, Spain, Oct. 20.—That Spanish anarchists are really preparing to make some kind of a demonstration during the coming visit of President Loubet to Madrid, rumors of which have been current for some time, was demonstrated at a meeting of anarchists held here last night Fiery speeches were made and threats were openly indulged in. One of the threats is to the effect that the anarchists will "protest by dynamite against government persecution during President Loubet's stay in Madrid." The authorities who are determined that there shall be no outbreak of any kind during the President's visit have brought twelve of the best known detectives in Europe to Spain to assist in protecting M. Loubet

Narrow Escape of Crown Princess.

Vienna, Oct 20.—Advices from Bucharest state that the Crown Princess Marie, of Roumania, had a narrow escape from death in a runaway accident which occurred there yesterday. The horses attached to the Crown Princess's carriage became frightened at a hay cart in the street and bolted. The carriage in which Princess Marie was riding was overturned. The coachman was killed in the accident, but the Crown Princess and a lady in waiting who accompanied her, escaped with slight injuries, although they were thrown on the pavement.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Copenhagen, Denmark, Polioken says that when Prince Charles, of Denmark, ascends the throne of Norway, he will assume the name of Haakon VII The last independant Norweigan king was Haakon VI. He died in 1380.

The condition of Mrs. Harold McCormick, of Chicago, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, who has been ill at Munich, is much improved. Dr. Gaup, the attending physician, announced today that his patient is convalescent and quite out of danger.

Fire which broke out today in Steriner's calico works, Accrington, Eng., practically wrecked the plant. One hundred sewing machines have been destroyed. It is estimated that the loss will reach $600,000.

An imperial decree has been issued in St. Petersburg granting permission, provisionally, for the use of the Polish and Lithuanian languages in Polish private schools.

The big department store of Wise, Smith & Co., on Main street, Hartford, Conn., was gutted by fire this morning. The loss is estimated at $75,000.

John M. Simpers was hanged at Elkton, Md., this morning, for the murder of Albert Constable, a prominent attorney.

Alleged Poisoning of Children.

Mrs. Emma Perkins, wife of Edward Perkins, a carriage painter of Richmond, who has lost two children by death in less than a month, yesterday alleged that the family has an enemy, and that the death of the children was due to poison.

The family now consists of Mr. and Mrs. Perkins and five children of Mrs. Perkins by a former marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins have been married three years. September 21 William Perkins died under circumstances which were regarded as suspicious, but no inquiry was made at the time. Last Monday a five-year-old daughter by Mrs. Perkins' former marriage, Octavia Blakley, died under similar circumstances.

That morning, Mrs. Perkins says the child was given a piece of bread by an elder sister, who, in turn, had been given it by a neighbor. Shortly after it was taken with spells of vomiting, emitting substances of a dark green color. Just preceding the vomiting it had fainted, as had the elder child, who had eaten a small portion of bread. This child is still sick. Physicians who were called in pronounced the sickness of the children "phosphorus poison."

The stomach of the dead child has beeen turned over to the State chemist for examination. Last May, Mrs. Perkins alleges, she received a postal card which made threats against her, and also referred to her husband and children. This postal was followed by two letters, which were also threatening.

Shortly after the death of the first child, Mrs. Perkins says, she received another letter, which was threatening, and which told her that other members of her family would soon follow. These letters and the postal have been placed in the hands of detectives. Mrs. Perkins says the postal was signed with the initials of a young lady she had known, and the letter was signed with the young lady's first name.

Dr. E. H. Terrell, who attended the Perkins children, said that there was every evidence of poisoning in the case of the child that died Monday, though he has not as yet been able to discover the nature of the poison. He added that the medical phase of the case is now in the hands of the city coroner.

Wall Acquitted.

Arthur Wall, president of the Maryland Telegraph Company, of Kenilworth, Md., was acquitted by a jury in the Circuit Court at Upper Marlboro yesterday after a trial which had lasted two days. The indictment charged him with conducting an enterprise in violation of the poolroom statute of Maryland. The case, which has finally resulted in a verdict of "not guilty," was set on foot by Allen W. Mallery and other members of the Kenilworth Citizens' Association to determine the legality of the sending of money by telegraph for the purpose of betting on horse races. The Maryland Telegraph Company is a regularly chartered telegraph company under the laws of the State of Maryland, and it was contended by Wall and those associated with him that no gambling was allowed on the premises, and that the manner of sending money-order telegrams adopted at Kenilworth was in keeping with the rights of his corporation. It is believed that the State will drop the prosecution of similar indictments against Wall. The latter was represented by Mr. Robert W. Wells and James C. Rogers, of Hyattsville, and Mr. Edmund Burke, of Alexandria, while the interests of the State were looked after by State's Attorney Hampton Magruder and Mr. T. Van Clagett as special counsel.

Fight at a Ball.

There was excitement in the colored Odd Fellows' Hall, on south Columbus street, about two o'clock this morning during the last act of a ball which had been given in that building. Four men and one woman were the participants, and when Joe Mitchell, the floor manager, and another colored man named Brooks, who gave the ball, endeavored to restore order there were attempts to mob them. Officers Bettis and Nicholson appeared at an opportune time, but their badges were no more respected than that worn by Mitchell. The darkeys crowded about the officers in a menacing manner and when Officer Nicholson attempted to place one of the belligerents under arrest a woman seized him. He shook her off and threw a negro man to the floor during the melee. The two officers finally took charge of four men and one woman. Officer Nicholson's watch disappeared during the conflict, but it was subsequently found by Officer Bettis on the opposite side of the room. The prisoners were brought before Justice Caton this morning and fined $5 each.

D. A. R.

The ladies of Vienna and vicinity formed the first chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Fairfax county Saturday evening last. The meeting, which was held at the home of Dr. B. W. Summy, at Vienna, was presided over by the State regent, Mrs. Eleanor Washington Howard, and was well attended by those interested in the organization. After an informal discussion of the object of the chapter its formation was perfected and the following officers were chosen: Mrs. Geo. E. King, regent; Mrs. Franklin Sherman, vice regent; Miss Mary Huntington, recording secretary; Miss Mariam Sherman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. G. Coumbe, treasurer; Mrs. B. W. Summy, register. This capter of the D. A. R. will be known as "Fairfax County Chapter," and its formation is largely due to the energy of Mrs. M. F. Gibson, a member of Western Reserve Chapter of Ohio.

Suspect Dismissed.

A colored man who was in charge of a horse and wagon early this morning caused some people living in West End to suppose that he had chickens in his possession to which he had no clear title. He was seen to take the fowls from a bag and placed them in a coop. A telephone message was sent to the station house and Officer Smith was sent after the man. He soon found the object of his search and conducted the suspect to the station house. The latter said he had previously taken the chickens from the coop and put them in a bag in order to clean the coop, and the act of restoring the chickens to their former quarters had excited suspicion. He told a plausible story which showed he had come by the chickens honestly, and requested the officers to telephone to a resident of Fairfax county and he would corroborate his statement. The suspect was dismissed.

Brutal Assault.

Peter Sims, colored, was before the Police Court this morning charged with brutally assaulting Emily Jasper, also colored. The offense was committed early last night in the "Petersburg" neighborhood. Officer Allen appeared on the scene and helped the woman into a near-by house. She had been knocked down by Sims and lay among the weeds for some time, being unable to regain her feet until after the arrival of the officer. Sims was fined $10. Several pistol shots were heard in that quarter of the city a night or two ago, and the complaints of quiet people living in the vicinity have become chronic.

Judgment for Defendant.

Justice of the Peace O'Neal, of Washington, has stated that he will render judgment in favor of the defendant in the cases of John Iminie and Lester H. Murdock against the E. S. Randall Steamboat and Excursion Company. The suits grow out of the leaving of a number of excursionists at Colonial Beach one day last summer because the capacity of the steamboat aboard which they expected to return to the city was overtaxed. Each of the plaintiffs claimed that he was damaged in the sum of $100 by reason of the defendant company's failure to transport him home, as he had expected.

Captain Appointed.

Second Officer C. B. Milburn of the steamer Washington, of the Norfolk and Washington line, has been appointed captain of the new ferry steamer Woodbury, which will be placed on the route between this city and Washington on the first proximo.

Applicable to all Cities.

The Mayor of Denver, Col., recently issued certain suggestions to the people of that place. They are equally applicable to Alexandria.

If your store front, residence or fence is dingy, order it painted.

If your awning is old, torn or faded, get a new one.

If your sidewalk, gate or fence needs repairing, fix it.

If your advertising sign is old and faded, take it down or paint it.

Take all dandelions out of your lawn—they spoil its beauty.

Destroy the young weeds that are starting on your property and on your neighbor's property.

Burn all the rubbish possible—allow no one to throw it on streets, alleys or vacant lots.

Promise not to spit on the sidewalk.

Organize a block improvement society, and allow no weeds to grow on sidewalk, area or vacant property in your block.

Ask your milkmen, grocerymen and expressmen to have their wagons painted.

Irrespective of the size of your house, make your lawn the finest.

Illuminate the front of your store in the business section.

Every effort put forth or dollar spent to improve our city's appearance will be returned twofold.

There are always chronic complaints of dirty alleys, ash heaps, weeds and other unsightly things in Alexandria. It is impossible for the street men to be everywhere at the same time, and some people, failing to realize this, make the Mayor's position a burden to him by taking up his time with useless details. If all would act on the suggestions made by the Mayor of Denver much could be done toward aiding the authorities in sanitary work.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Dora Dunlap, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with destroying property of Agnes Little, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

Wm Taylor, colored, arrested by Officers Bettis and Arrington charged with breaking into the house of Mary Francis and assaulting her, was fined $10.

Emma Carter, colored, arrested by Officer Bell charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Minnie Sachs, arrested by Officer Smith charged with larceny in Washington, was turned over to the authorities of that city.

Peter Sims, colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with assaulting Emily Jasper, was fined $10

Four colored men and a colored woman, arrested by Officers Nicholson and Bettis charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Jos. Higgins and Samuel Otis, arrested by Lieutenant Smith charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each.

Sallie Dixon, arrested by Officers Beach and Lyles charged with abusive language, was dismissed.

Two small white girls, charged with assaulting other children, were dismissed with an admonition.

Howard Skelton, colored, charged with driving a team over Lucy Cupid, was dismissed.

E. A. Gorman vs. Southern Railway Co.; suit for damages; demurrer overruled and case set for hearing at 10 o'clock October 31.

F. L. Wagar has entered suit against F. F. Marbury et al, for specific performance of contract in the matter of the sale of a house and lot on the north side of Prince street between Royal and Pitt.

Charge Dismissed.

Lucy Cupid, colored, was standing on upper King street yesterday bidding adieux to friends who had boarded an electric train. She was walking backward at the time and a carriage coming along the front wheel collided with her hip and in the twinkling of an eye placed her in a sitting posture in the road. The woman seemed to suffer more from indignity than physical injury, and proceeded to the station house where she swore out a warrant against Howard Skelton, colored, who was driving the team. In the Police Court this morning Skelton said he was conveying two passengers to the new union depot, and at upper King street, where the accident occurred, the road is narrow and that the woman walked backward into the carriage. Skelton was dismissed.

Opera House.

Considerable interest is shown in the announcement of the engagement of the Arnold Stock Company to play at the Opera House for one week, commencing next Monday night. This company has played here before and made many friends, as their shows are the best seen in this city at popular prices. The company this season is stronger than ever and carry some excellent vaudeville artists. On Monday night the sensational melodrama, "A Daughter of Satan," will be produced. The company carries a carload of scenery for its productions.

Cow Stolen.

A cow was stolen from Mrs. Downey, at Spring Bank farm, across Hunting creek, last night. The authorities were notified and this morning the cow was found at the slaughter house near Arlington where it had been purchased. Those in charge of the slaughter house said the cow had been brought there by a soldier from whom it had been bought.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure.' Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed 50c and $1.00 bottles at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store. Trial bottle free.

Pear-Apple.

Mr. R. W. Blair, who has recently been in Culpeper county, called at this office today to show a remarkable species of fruit which has the shape of an apple but other ways looks like a pear. It has a smooth rusty coat covered with lighter brown spots and is solid and heavy. Mr. Blair says the fruit was taken from a pear orchard. The trunk of the tree had been broken off and a shoot had grown which has borne thirteen of the pear-apples. The specimen he had he took to the Agriculture Department in Washington to find out what manner of fruit it was.

Scare in Frame Row.

A family living in one of a row of frame houses on south Patrick street caused some excitement among their neighbors about 10:30 o'clock this morning by setting fire to a mattress in the cellar. Smoke soon began to pour from the windows and persons living in other houses in the row naturally became alarmed. Neighbors, however, allayed apprehension by proceeding to the cellar and keeping the flames from setting fire to the house.

MADISON HALL OPENED.

Forty-seven years ago yesterday the first college Young Men's Christian Association in America was organized at the University of Virginia. John W. Johnson, engineer of Fort Sumter and historian of the defense of Charleston, was its first president, and the first recording secretary was L. M. Blackford, of the Episcopal High School, near Alexandria. Among the founders were the late Bishop Thomas U. Dudley, of Kentucky; Dr. J. William Jones, of Virginia; Dr. Thomas Hume, of the University of North Carolina, and the late Dr. Thomas B. Price, of Columbia University.

Yesterday the splendid new Young Men's Christian Association building, built through the munificence of the late William E. Dodge, of New York, and his widow was presented to the university. Mrs. Dodge's total gift amounts to something over $60,000, and to this generous sum her son, Cleveland H. Dodge, and her daughter, Miss Grace Dodge, added $15,000 for furniture As completed the building and furnishing have cost $80,000. The building is known as Madison Hall, named for President Madison.

The building was formally presented by Mr. Cleveland H. Dodge and accepted by President Alderman.

Dr. Alderman's address was followed by the dedicatory prayer by Dr. J. A. Quarles, of Washington and Lee University. The formal address was by Dr. Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, who in his student days at Virginia was an active member of the association. Dr. John William Jones, one of the founders, pronounced the benediction.

The faculty ordained a full holiday in honor of the occasion to enable professors, students and officers to assist at the dedication.

At the meeting in the afternoon there was a roll call of the membership of 1858. Dr. Thomas Hume, of the University of North Carolina, delivered the historical address. There were reminiscences by Mr. W. W. Old, of Norfolk; Capt. W. A. Kable, of Staunton; Dr. George B. Jennings, of Greene county, and others, and a word of encouragement from Dr. L M. Blackford, of Alexandria.

Adventures of a Bank Note.

A lady passing down the Rue Richelieu had the misfortune to lose a pocketbook containing, among other valuables, a 1,000 franc note. The pocketbook was picked up by a chair mender named Renaud, who lives at Montreux. He placed it very carefully in his pocket and proceeded home. It is not often that a chair mender has occasion to change a note for that amount, and Renaud, recognizing the impossibility of turning it into gold without detection, agreed with a friend to do the business for the consideration of 100 francs. This friend, Lucien Mathern, also a chair mender, was in his turn filled with apprehension. The difficulty was solved with the aid of a horticulturist named Simonnet, who kindly consented to buy himself a horse for 300 francs and return the change. Renaud was thus richer by 600 francs. All might then have gone well if, two days later, it had not been discovered that the horse had been stolen from a dealer at Meaux. This led to the arrest of the trio, and later in the day the police put their hands on the horse thieves.—Paris Messenger.

A Dark Dungeon.

About the middle of February, 1862, while in winter quarters, General Naglee of Pennsylvania, who was a strict disciplinarian, was in command of the First brigade, of which the Second New Hampshire was a part. He thought the guardhouse of the Second regiment too comfortable quarters for prisoners and ordered Colonel Marston, who later won fame as a soldier, lawyer and statesman, to build a dungeon without so much as a crack or opening anywhere, so that it should be perfectly dark. The dungeon was built with four solid walls, and one day General Naglee came over to inspect it. He was accompanied by Colonel Marston. "Where is the entrance," said the general, "and how do you get anybody into it?" "Oh," said Colonel Marston, "that is not my lookout. I simply obeyed your orders."

The Possibilities.

A Richmond (Va.) judge tells a story which illustrates the difficulty met in trying to stop the carrying of pistols. A tough youth was brought before the judge, charged with firing a revolver in the street. The testimony in the case was to the effect that the young hoodlum had filled himself with whisky and had discharged his weapon in a crowded street. "Twenty dollars and costs," said the magistrate. "But, your honor," interposed counsel for the prisoner, "my client did not hit anybody." "Why, you admit that he fired the gun?" "Yes, but he fired in the air," explained the lawyer. "Twenty dollars and costs," repeated the judge. "He might have shot an angel." And the riotous fellow went to jail, not having the money to pay his fine.

A Curious Custom.

In Byfield, a small Northamptonshire village in England, a curious old custom is still observed in connection with the letting of certain land. The ceremony is held in different licensed houses in the vicinity, and the clergyman presides over the proceedings. The company, chiefly consisting of local farmers, is seated round a large table. Presently one of them rises and bids a certain amount, immediately walking round the table and out of the door. If this can be done before the next bid is made, the land is his for the season; if not, bidder No. 2 commences the walk, and so on. This curious auction occupies some considerable time and causes great excitement.

Interested.

An English magazine tells a court story. A counsel in the middle of his cross examination was handed a telegram. "Hello," he said, as he read it, "So-and-so has won the Derby." "Mr. A.," said the judge severely, "it is very unseemly that in the course of solemn judicial proceedings, where a man's liberty and reputation are at stake, you should be talking of the winner of a horse race. Er—by the way, does the telegram say which were second and third?"

The Weight of the World.

A cubic foot of earth weighs about five and a half times as much as a cubic foot of water. A cubic mile of earth then weighs 25,649,300,000 tons. The volume of the earth is 259,880,000,000 cubic miles. The weight of the world without its atmosphere is 6,666,250,000,000,000,000,000 tons. If we add to this the weight of the atmosphere given above, we get a grand total—6,666,255,819,600,000,000,000 tons.

Thin Plaster.

Paper Hanger—We'll have to paper right over the old paper. We can't get this paper off without taking the plaster along with it. Owner (modern cottage)—Because the paper sticks to the plaster? Paper Hanger—No, because the plaster sticks to the paper.

Two of Many Differences.

A woman tells most when she is sad, and a man tells all when he is scared. You can jolly anything out of a woman; you can bluff a man out of his breeches.—Richmond Missourian.

The Clerk Was Right.

"Well," said Wymsat, as he vainly tried to get into a No. 12 shoe with the aid of four shoe horns, "the clerk that sold me these shoes was right. I should have worn the box."

Mushrooms.

Tommy—Papa, is it always damp where they raise mushrooms? Papa—Yes, my son. Tommy—Is that why they look like umbrellas?

Measured Him.

Brown—Did the tailor take your measure? Jones—I should think he did. He said I'd have to pay in advance.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

THE ORIGINAL
The idea of a Cough Syrup that will act on the bowels, and thus assist in expelling colds from the system is new and original in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar.
LAXATIVE
A certain, safe and harmless remedy for all Coughs, Colds, Group, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Influenza and all Lung and Bronchial affections. Mothers praise the children's favorite Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar

Strange Reward For Life Savers.

"I have seen a good many drowning accidents," said an old sea captain, "and I have seen a good many queer rewards. Once a young man rescued a young widow's little son from the sea. The widow, in her gratitude, asked for the young man's photograph. He sent it to her, and two months later he received a magnificent painting, by Smith, that showed the scene of the rescue accurately, with the little boy and him, both perfect likenesses, struggling like mad in the water.

"A farmer, one of the Pinkertons told me, came from the west to meet a gold brick man. As the farmer and the swindler crossed on the ferry the swindler fell overboard, and the farmer rescued him. He was so grateful that he gave the farmer a brick of solid silver.

"I saved a pretty girl from drowning in my youth," the captain ended. "She gave me a present that weighed 130 pounds. She gave me herself, and I've still got her. She may not be in as good condition now as she was then, but in my eyes somehow she is as sweet and pretty as she ever was."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Koran and Bible.

Concerning the alleged resemblance between Christianity and Mohammedanism Rev. Napier Malcolm, in "Five Years In a Persian Town," says: "There are really not many resemblances to note. An officer of Indian troops replied to a Mussulman's suggestion that there were resemblances between the two religions, 'There is hardly a single practical point where Mussulmans and Christians are not entirely at issue,' whereupon the Mussulman said: 'Sahib, you have read your Bible and have also read the Koran. I always make that remark to Christians. I made it to a padre the other day, and they almost always say: "Very true. Mohammedanism has a great deal in common with Christianity." Well, sahib, when they say that, I know that they have not read the Koran and that they have not read their Bibles.'"

From Jail to the Bench.

Francis Pemberton (1625-97) was imprisoned in the Fleet for debts contracted during a period of youthful extravagance. While in jail he applied himself to the study of law and came to be regarded as a kind of legal oracle by his fellow prisoners, who nicknamed him Counselor. With the fees they gave him for legal advice he bought books to continue his studies. He then prevailed upon his creditors to grant his release from prison that he might the sooner earn money to pay off his debts. Called to the bar in 1654, after a brilliant career in the palace court at Westminster and subsequently in the house of lords, he became a puisne judge. He was knighted in 1675 and ultimately, on the dismissal of Scroggs, was made lord chief justice in 1681.

The Oldest Paper Books.

What is believed by antiquaries to be the oldest paper book in existence is the "Red Book of Lynn," an ancient register belonging to the corporation of King's Lynn, England. This volume is known as the "Red Book" from its original binding having been of that color. The first entry is a transcript of the will of Peter de Thorndon, burgess of Lynn, dated 1309. The latest entry is dated in the fifteenth year of King Richard II. Fifty years ago the book was repaired and rebound, and the leaves, which age had reduced to a loose, fibrous substance, were carefully resized as an aid to preservation.

Turn About.

An Irish doctor was asked to attend a patient on Tory island, off the Irish mainland. The doctor said that he was willing to go, but that the fee would be £2 ($10), payable in advance. The Tory islander paid the money and ferried the doctor over from the mainland himself. The physician finished his duties and wished to start back. The only way to get back was to be rowed back by the same man who had carried him over. The doctor asked what the charge was. "Two pounds," said the Tory island man, "payable in advance." It was paid.

The Pursuit of Man.

Directly or indirectly we are all interested in the pursuit of the desirable male, for whom every function is really arranged whatever be the ostensible reason. When one sees on all sides how eligible men are run after, fawned upon, flattered, cajoled and humbugged, can the truth of it be denied?—Ladies' Field.

An Unfair Fling.

Mrs. Wickwire—If woman were given the credit she deserves, I don't think man would be quite so prominent in the world's history. Mr. Wickwire—I expect you are right. If she could get all the credit she wanted, he'd be in the poorhouse.

A Funny Will.

Comforting Friend—Has your husband made his will? Prospective Widow—Yes, the wretch. He's left everything to the doctor if he cures 'im, an' not a blessed farthin' to his widder an' orphans.

Painless Sometimes.

Sufferer—Do you extract teeth without pain? Dentist—Not always. I sprained my wrist on one a couple of days ago and it hurts yet.

10 barrels LARGE PICKLES received today by J. C. MILBURN.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.
"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Frightful Suffering Relieved
Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Iuka, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, drugstore, guaranteed.

A Splendid Idea.
A new idea in a Cough Syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing Pine Tar, Honey and other valuable remedies. It is rendered laxative so that its use insures a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. A red clover blossoms and the honey bee is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup—Kennedy's Laxative Honey Tar. An ideal remedy for children. Mothers praise it. It is best for all Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co., 401 King street.
